

Charles-Antoine Janssen

Charles-Antoine holds a bachelor of Laws degree from Brussels University (ULB) and an AMP from Harvard Business School.

He worked for Merrill Lynch in London from 1996-2000 where he was Vice-President Equities Research then Vice-President New Derivatives Europe.

Charles-Antoine joined UCB in 2001 where he held several management positions at global and local levels. Among other responsibilities he was head of Global Business Development, General Manager of Austria and India and managed International Major Markets Operations.

Charles-Antoine joined the Board of Financière de Tubize SA in 2011 and the Board of UCB in April 2012.

He is co-founder & Managing Partner of Kois Invest, an impact investing firm.

He is co-founder, board member, advisory board member and investment committee member of various private companies, non-profit organizations and private equity funds.